The UBC MBA Experience
The Full-time MBA at UBC Sauder School of Business’ Robert H. Lee Graduate School is designed for people like you. Our 16-month program, with its experiential curriculum, built-in professional development and international perspective, promises a transformative journey for the candidate who’s ready to take their career to the next level.

Imagine the Possibilities
Within the classroom, you’ll learn from some of the top thinkers and movers in the business world. Our professors are among the highest-calibre in the world and their work has made our school one of the top in the world for business research. Your classmates will consist of candidates from diverse countries and various professional backgrounds, meaning you could share a class with everyone from corporate marketing managers to health care specialists to computer engineers.

Outside the classroom, we’ll work with you to enhance your professional brand and network. You’ll also travel, as part of your Global Immersion Experience, diving into an unfamiliar business culture, and collaborating with people from all walks of life. In addition, you’ll have the opportunity to take up an internship (or entrepreneurial/industry project), and create lasting relationships from the rich experiences you’ll share with your classmates.

Experiential Learning

Our MBA students graduate with invaluable practical experience which they gain locally and around the world. Through internships, Global Immersion, and case studies, our Full-time MBA students learn by doing. The moment they start the program, they get the hands-on exposure they need to succeed in any organization.

Internship. Pitch your skills to land a summer internship, then apply and test your MBA learning and career direction on real business problems. UBC MBA interns have helped create millions of dollars of cost savings, developed new market opportunities, and solved complex strategic problems.

Typical internship roles include:
- Business Analysis & Sales Forecasting
- Operations Management & Supply Chain Analysis
- Project Management & Analysis
- Market Research & Competitive Intelligence
- Financial Analysis and Risk Management

Entrepreneurial or Industry Project. Have a new service or product idea, or want to explore a new industry to plot your career change? Use the summer to develop a minimum viable product, conduct market testing or do in-depth research into your target sector. Utilize UBC-wide resources for mentoring and support, as well as connect with a diverse network of like-minded people from other faculties.

Monthly Salary Range
$3,000 - $6,000

UBC MBA candidates have interned at companies, including:

Deloitte
Finnings
GATV
BC Hydro
Procurify
Salesforce
Seaspan
Terramera

During his UBC MBA internship, Michael Emerson helped SAP develop a capacity-planning tool and contributed to a propensity analysis for the SAP Solutions forecast process. After graduating in 2013, Michael is now the Vice President of Planning Product Strategy at SAP’s global headquarters in Germany.

“I had the opportunity to expand my network and learn about opportunities and roles that I did not necessarily know existed.”

Your Global Journey Starts Here

Considered one of North America’s most diverse schools, we take pride in our global perspective on business. That’s why we offer numerous opportunities for our candidates to gain international experience.

“Spending a year pursuing the Yale MAM degree after the first year at UBC MBA program has helped me gain new perspectives, broaden my personal and professional network, and round off my skillset to become a leader for business and society.”

Moon Zheng
Consultant at Boston Consulting Group
Calgary, Canada
UBC MBA, Class of 2019
Yale Master of Advanced Management, Class of 2019

Global Perspective
Moon’s UBC MBA experience started in the classroom at our Vancouver campus, but extended far beyond, allowing her to develop a truly global mindset.

During your time at UBC Sauder, you’ll have unparalleled access to immersive study abroad options through our global partnerships. The UBC MBA offers three global learning opportunities: International Business School Exchange, Global Network for Advanced Management and Global Immersion.

International Business School Exchanges
While pursuing a UBC MBA, you’ll have the opportunity to study at one of our 34 global partner schools around the world, with no extra tuition cost. Take on new perspectives and absorb different cultural approaches to business. Our exchange partners include Copenhagen Business School, SDA Bocconi School of Management, IE Business School, Tsinghua University, Indian Institute of Management Ahmedabad (IIMA) and many more.

Global Network for Advanced Management
UBC Sauder is the only Canadian school in the Global Network for Advanced Management, a prestigious collaboration of 30 graduate schools around the world. Students who participate in the Global Network Weeks will have the opportunity to travel to partner business schools, tour local businesses and meet with local experts. In addition, students in the network will have access to various online courses offered by member schools.

Global Immersion Experience (GIE)
A mandatory component of the UBC MBA, the GIE allows you to go abroad and consult for a pre-selected company overseas on a real-world business challenge. The 5-month experience begins at UBC Sauder with an introduction to the business practices and customs of your host country. In addition, you’ll begin to establish a relationship with your client prior to your departure. Then, during the two weeks abroad, you’ll consult with the company’s local management team and help them solve some of their unique business problems. The GIE locations in 2019 were Santiago, Tel Aviv, Berlin, and Hong Kong.

After advising at a tech startup in Japan as part of GIE, Moon was inspired to learn more about global issues in the business world and pursued her Master of Advanced Management at Yale University.

Our Admissions Process

The UBC MBA selection process is rigorous. We deliberately keep our cohort small – with an intake of 100 to 120 candidates every year – to help foster a more collegial and personal environment. Candidates are carefully selected against competitive requirements to ensure that, once in the program, you learn from peers who have demonstrated vision, leadership and experience.

1. Review our Admission Requirements & Apply Online
   a. To be considered for the UBC MBA Degree, it is recommended that you review our admission requirements and ensure you understand the components of the application at sauder.ubc.ca/ftmba
   b. Create an account on our website and get started on your application.

2. Submit Documentation
   Applications will be reviewed once we have received copies of all required documents and references, and verified your test scores. Please note that if you submit unofficial documents at the time of application, official documents must be received by the Admissions office no later than November 20, 2020.
   - Transcripts/degree certificates/translation
   - Letters of reference (electronic reference)
   - GMAT/GRE
   - English Proficiency Exam (required for candidates whose degrees are from a university outside Canada or the U.S.A. in which English was not the official language of instruction)

3. Await Results
   a. All candidates being considered for admission will be contacted by the Robert H. Lee Graduate School for an interview either in person or by video call.
   b. If successful, you will receive a letter of admission from UBC Sauder’s Robert H. Lee Graduate School.
   c. Accept your offer! Get ready to join the class, starting in the last week of August. All students are recommended to be in Vancouver earlier to settle in and adjust.
