Accounting Lecturer

The Sauder School of Business of the University of British Columbia is seeking applicants for one full-time lecturer position (non-tenure track) beginning July 1, 2021.

Qualifications: Demonstrated excellence in teaching and management experience. In particular, the candidate should have proven teaching experience in a broad variety of accounting subjects, including auditing, financial accounting, managerial accounting, and taxation. The candidate would ideally also have relevant work experience in these same areas of expertise. Finally, the candidate should have familiarity with current classroom technology and delivery approaches. CA and CPA are required; a relevant Masters degree is preferred.

Responsibilities: The position will focus on teaching graduate and undergraduate level courses in Accounting at the Sauder School of Business. The courses will require the candidate to possess skills and understanding in all the major areas of accounting education. Duties also include holding office hours, participation in student events, faculty meetings, and related activities. The candidate is also expected to engage in professional development.

Application Procedure: Interested candidates should submit a letter of interest, a resume or CV, a statement of teaching philosophy, prior course evaluations and three letters of reference, to:

A teaching demonstration may be required as part of the interview process.

Application Deadline: June 15, 2021

We thank all applicants for their interest. Only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.

Equity and diversity are essential to academic excellence. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, racialization, disability, political belief, religion, marital or family status, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Metis, Inuit, or Indigenous person.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.
