

Andrew Chen has been teaching Improvisation since 2006. He is a Canadian Comedy Award Nominated Performer, holds his BCom and MFRE from The University of British Columbia, and is an instructor and performer with Instant Theatre Company. He is the Assistant Regional Director for the Canadian Improv Games (Lower Mainland Tournament), a nationally registered charity dedicated to youth skill development, and has been affiliated with the Improv Games since 2002. He has taught improvisation through the Canadian Improv Games, The Improv Camp, UBC Improv and Instant Theatre.